DOCUMENTATION

Hajar Benkhadra

This documentation resumes the term of use of the web app called "The Ancient Library" for users

On the first encounter the page is as follow, you wouldn't be able to connect or check books unless you register:

The navbar has here the sign in access if you already have an account or the register access in case this is your first time

TO KEEP IN MIND:

While you register note that the password wouldn't be valid until it contains at least one lower case, one uppercase, a number, a special character, and it is preferable that it Is between 5-10 character at best, if requirements are not met you wouldn't be able to process and would likely geta message like this: After registration or sign up, you will be able to navigate as you want, in the navbar notice that you have a new section, the dashboard section.

Start Your Journey, Find A Book	Start Your Journey, Find A Book
